

MASTER OF FINANCE WITH UNIVERSIDAD FRANCISCO MARROQUIN AND UCASS, MFN

The International Master of Finance (MFIN) program is a curriculum designed for students recruited by partner institutions in Latin America and China who wish to pursue the Tulane MFIN degree. Tulane offers this program in cooperation with Universidad Francisco Marroquin (UFM) in Guatemala and Panama and UCASS (University of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences) in China.

UFM students enroll in a 35-hour curriculum, which includes 17 credit hours of foundation courses taught by Universidad Francisco Marroquin faculty and 18 credit hours of course work delivered by Tulane faculty in Panama City and Guatemala City.

UCASS students enroll in a 36-hour curriculum, which includes 18 credit hours of foundation courses taught by UCASS faculty and 18 credit hours of course work delivered by Tulane faculty in Beijing, Shanghai and Shenzhen, China.

Both UFM and UCASS students participate in an on-campus business module in New Orleans as part of their program curriculum.

Requirements

Students in the International MFIN program at UFM must complete a minimum of 35 credit hours with 17 credit hours at UFM and 18 credit hours from among the following Tulane courses as part of the double degree curriculum. Students at UCASS must complete 18 credit hours of foundation courses taught by UCASS faculty and 18 credit hours from among the following Tulane courses as part of the double degree curriculum.

UCASS Courses

Course ID	Title	Credits
GFIN 7030	Investments	3
GFIN 7040	Fixed Income Analytics	3
GFIN 7050	Options, Futures & Derivatives	3
GFIN 7060	Valuation & Financing Enterprises	3
GFIN 7140	Portfolio Management	3
GFIN 7660	Risk Management	3
Total Credit Hours		18

UFM Courses

Course ID	Title	Credits
EMBA 6420	Leadership & Ethics	3
GFIN 7030	Investments	3
GFIN 7050	Options, Futures & Derivatives	3
GFIN 7060	Valuation & Financing Enterprises	3
GMBA 7430	Entrepreneurial Finance	3
GMBA 7510	International Finance	3
Total Credit Hours		18