

ARABIC STUDIES MINOR

Overview

Standard Arabic has an estimated 206 million speakers, while colloquial Arabic is spoken by a total of over 400 million, which makes it the fifth most widely spoken language in the world. Arabic classes at Tulane highlight the richness of Arabic culture and literature, as well as its practical applications in the global political economy.

Requirements

The Arabic minor consists of 5 courses for a minimum of 15 credits, distributed as follows:

Course ID	Title	Credits
Core Courses
ARBC 2030	Intermediate Arabic	4
ARBC 3150	Advanced Arabic	3
Electives
Select three or four of the following:
ARBC 3060	Business Arabic	3
ARBC 3170	Media Arabic	3
ARBC 3220	Introduction to Arabic Literature	3
ARBC 3250	Arab Modern Culture	3
ARBC 3300	Arabic for International Relations and Diplomacy	3

If a student wishes to complete two or more minors, no courses counting toward the student's one minor will count toward the student's other minor(s). Courses taken abroad that the student wishes to count toward the Arabic minor will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.
