

MUSIC MINOR

The Minor in Music is a flexible program that gives students grounding in performance, theory, and musicology while allowing them to cater to their particular music study interests. By choosing from a variety of core courses and electives, students can design their own pathway in Performance, Composition, Musicology, Ethnomusicology, Black American Music, Musical Theatre, or other areas.

Requirements

Course ID	Title	Credits
Core
MUSC 2030	Comparative Music History: Listening and Music in Cross Cultural Perspective	3
MUSC 2040	Music, Culture, and Society	3
Theory		7-8
Depending on music theory placement during the first week of classes, students will take either:
MUSC 1000	Fundamentals of Theory
MUSC 1510 & APMS 1090	Music Theory I and Musicianship Lab I
OR
MUSC 1510 & APMS 1090	Music Theory I and Musicianship Lab I
MUSC 1520 & APMS 1100	Music Theory II and Musicianship Lab II
Electives		4
4 credits in APMS or MUSC electives
Total Credit Hours		17-18