

KOREAN LANGUAGE (ASTK)

---

ASTK 1010 Introduction to Korean Language I (4)

This course is designed to develop your basic communication skills in various everyday topics through an integrated practice of listening, speaking, reading, writing, and presentation. Additionally, you will engage in free unlimited 1:1 conversation practice online (AnytimeKorean.com) with AI Korean speakers as your language partners to enhance your pronunciation and conversation skills through real-time interaction. In addition to language learning, the course will introduce elements of Korean culture, including K-dramas, K-pop, and K-culture, to make learning more engaging and relatable. Students will explore Korean traditional holidays and participate in activities that foster a deeper understanding of Korea and its traditions.

ASTK 1910 Special Topics (3,4)

Specialty courses for undergraduates visiting or permanent faculty teaching in the program. Consult with instructor for course description.

Maximum Hours: 99

ASTK 1940 Transfer Credit (1-4)

Transfer Credit coursework.

Maximum Hours: 99

ASTK 2910 Special Topics (3,4)

Specialty courses for undergraduates visiting or permanent faculty teaching in the program. Consult with instructor for course description.

Maximum Hours: 99

ASTK 2940 Transfer Credit (1-4)

Transfer Credit coursework.

Maximum Hours: 99

ASTK 3910 Special Topics (3)

Specialty courses for undergraduates visiting or permanent faculty teaching in the program. Consult with instructor for course description.

Maximum Hours: 99

ASTK 3940 Transfer Credit (1-4)

Transfer Credit coursework.

Maximum Hours: 99

ASTK 5380 Junior Year Abroad (1-20)

Study Abroad coursework.

Maximum Hours: 99

ASTK 5390 Junior Year Abroad (1-20)

Study Abroad coursework.

Maximum Hours: 99