MARKETING (BSMK)

BSMK 2910 Special Topics in Marketing (1-3)
Special topics in Marketing.

BSMK 3200 Intro to Marketing Principles (3)
A study of our present-day marketing system from a managerial point of view. Subjects covered include strategic marketing, products, consumers and target markets, promotion, channels of distribution, market research, pricing, feasibility analysis, and global marketing.

BSMK 3300 Consumer Behavior (3)
Understanding the consumer is the key to developing and implementing successful marketing strategies. Disciplines such as psychology, sociology, and anthropology provide insight into the factors that influence the decision to buy. These factors are used to identify market segments and to explain their buying habits and mental processes.

BSMK 3400 Principles of Advertising (3)
This course covers the fundamentals of advertising, beginning with the history and evolution of advertising as an element in the economy, a specialized form of communication, a craft, and an area of ethical sensitivity. At the practical level, students will be introduced to media planning and the emergence of new media, market research, agency organization and creativity as well as the legal and ethical concerns that advertising professionals must bear in mind.

BSMK 3410 Advertising II (3)
Building on the Principles of Advertising, this course requires students to develop and present advertising campaign projects that involve organizing research, establishing goals and objectives, developing creative and messaging strategies, and preparing budgets similar to what advertising agencies do on a day-to-day basis. The projects will provide a greater mastery of advertising principles and provide completed projects for their portfolio.
