CRDV 1090 Majors, Internships & Jobs (1)
Using four phases of career development, students will explore the importance of developing a professional identity and concretely identify avenues to achieve career related goals such as major declaration, securing internships, and preparing for a successful transition from college post-graduation. Course may be repeated 2 times for credit.

Course Limit: 2