

ENGLISH FOR ACADEMIC/PROFESSIONAL PURPOSES (EAPP)

EAPP 1000 Composition and Reading (3)

This course prepares students to subsequently master their college writing requirements. In addition to developing an advanced understanding of English syntax, morphology, and semantics, students explore the process of composing, revising, and editing in English and the expectations of academic writing to different audience expectations in Global Perspectives.

EAPP 1050 Multicultural Speech (3)

This course prepares students to master public speaking and interpersonal dynamics with a focus on Race and Inclusion in the USA. In addition to developing an advanced understanding of English phonology, semantics, and pragmatics, students focus on the communication strategies that make presentations and interpersonal interactions memorable and smooth.