

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES MINOR

The Bachelor of Latin American Studies curriculum focuses on achieving an interdisciplinary understanding of the region relative to an increasingly globalizing world. Under an advisor's supervision, students write their own minors, selecting electives from more than twenty cooperating departments taught by some seventy affiliated faculty specializing in Latin America. The program strives to develop critical thinking, intercultural competency and research, analytical and communicative skills. A minor in Latin American Studies consists of 15 credit hours in 5 courses.

Requirements

A minor in Latin American Studies consists of 15 credit hours in 5 courses.

Required courses: LAST 1010 plus 4 electives.
