Courses
Linguistics (LING)
LING 1010 American Sign Language I (3)
The purpose of this course is to enable students to acquire introductory knowledge of American Sign Language. A linguistic, communicative, and cultural approach will allow students to explore this visual-spatial language used by up to two million people in the United States. Instruction will focus on the development of receptive and expressive signing skills and on the acquisition of the fundamentals of applied grammar.

LING 1015 Elem Amer Sign Language II (3)
Continuation of Elementary American Sign Language I, with focus on the expansion of vocabulary, a deepening of the understanding of grammatical structures, and the further development of communicative skills. Prerequisite: LING 1010 Elementary American Sign Language I.

Prerequisite(s): LING 1010.

LING 1940 Transfer Coursework (0-20)
Transfer Coursework at the 1000 level. Department approval may be required.

Maximum Hours: 99

LING 2010 Intermed Amer Sign Language (3)
Continuation of intermediate/advanced study in American Sign Language, with focus on the expansion of vocabulary, conversational skills, demonstrative skills, and receptive skills in a seminar setting. Use of grammatical structure in natural and informative settings and the further development of communicative skills. THIS COURSE REQUIRES SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF ASL II AT THE B- LEVEL OR ABOVE. Prerequisite(s): LING 1015.

Prerequisite(s): LING 1015.

LING 2890 Service Learning (0-1)
Students complete a service activity in the community in conjunction with the content of a three-credit corequisite course.

LING 3000 Tunica La’s Sleeping Language (3)
Tulane has been collaborating with the Tunica tribe of Louisiana to bring back their language, the last speaker, Sesostrie Youchigant having died over fifty years ago. This course addresses the processes of language death, as well as methods and initiatives for language revitalization. Students will learn effective second language teaching methods and elementary Tunica. They will then apply what they have learned, serving as teaching assistants during the tribe’s Language Summer Camp. The Tunica tribe will host the course in Marksville for the week of the Summer Camp. This course counts as a second tier service learning course.

LING 3010 Semantics (3)
What does the word cat mean? This course looks at three answers. One says that cat is just the set of all cats. Another says that cat refers to a prototypical cat, one described by the characteristics common to all the cats that you have ever seen. The third answer says that cat is the word that the brain associates with the cats that you saw when you were younger. Each of these answers assumes that the mind works in a certain way, so the right one tells us something about how the mind works in situations that have nothing to do with the meaning of cat.
LING 3430 Semantics of Nat. Lang. (3)
An introduction to the study of meaning in natural languages. The central techniques involve extending the methods of logical semantics for formal languages. No prerequisites, but prior exposure either to generative grammar (e.g., ANTH 3590) or symbolic logic (e.g., PHIL 1210) would not be wasted.

LING 3441 Lexicography (3)
Lexicography is the making of dictionaries. Dictionaries take many forms and fulfill many functions. Dictionaries have evolved new formats; professional lexicographers share word gleaning with internet users. Dictionaries may be monolingual, bi, tri-, or multi-lingual, etymological or encyclopedic, synchronic or diachronic, prescriptive or descriptive, terminological or generic. Dictionary construction requires a number of skills which co-vary with the type of dictionary to be produced. This course provides an overview of dictionaries, their forms, formats and histories, while fostering a basic skill set for harvesting words and compiling lexicons. Dictionaries provide a cognitive map to communities of speakers, both past and present.
Notes: Writing Practica Option

LING 3700 Second Language Acquisition (3)
This course is intended to familiarize students with the field of Second Language Acquisition, including a history of the field’s origins. Discussion of recent theories of second language acquisition and an overview of approaches to research methodology in this field.
