

MEDIEVAL AND EARLY MODERN STUDIES MAJOR

MEMS is a multidisciplinary program with a focus on the history and cultures of the medieval and early modern world. The Program consists of faculty and students from diverse departments within the School of Liberal Arts (Art History, Asian Studies, Classical Studies, English, French and Italian, Germanic and Slavic Studies, History, Jewish Studies, Music, Philosophy, Political Science, Spanish and Portuguese) and offers undergraduate major and minor concentrations, as well as graduate degree programs in affiliated professors' home departments. We regularly sponsor conferences, colloquia, and presentations by scholars around the world.

Requirements

The major consists of 30 credits (10 courses) to be distributed in the following manner:

Course ID	Title	Credits
Select three courses each from two of three categories:		18
Medieval (300-1499)
Early modern (1500-1699)
Crossover (spanning medieval and early modern)
Select four additional courses		12
Total Credit Hours		30

The student may take up to four courses in a single department. Of the ten courses, no more than three courses may be taken below the 3000 level, and at least two must be completed at the 4000 level or above.
