

HUMAN RESOURCES, B.A.

Overview

With its curriculum aligned with the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) curricular templates and Competency Model, the fully online Bachelor of Arts in Human Resources provides students with the knowledge and skills to forecast, plan, recruit, compensate, appraise, and otherwise develop human resources within business organizations in compliance with applicable laws and ethical guidelines. In addition, graduates of the BA in Human Resources program who meet the SHRM experience requirements may be eligible to take the examination to attain the SHRM-CP Certification.

The School of Professional Advancement awards the Bachelor of Arts in Human Resources following the successful completion of 120 credits, including 36 credits in the major, culminating in capstone project.

Requirements

Course ID	Title	Credits
BSLS 2450	Career Success Strategies	3
BSLS 3330	Intro To Human Resources	3
BSLS 3320	Compensation & Benefits	3
BSLS 3340	Managing Org Behavior	3
BSLS 3360	Plan, Recruit & Selection HR	3
BSLS 3370	Perf Appraisal & Productivity	3
BSLS 3390 or GLSP 4310	Employment & Labor Law Employment Law	3
BSLS 3380	Business Ethics	3
BSLS 3410	Human Resource Training & Development	3
BSLS 3700	Global Business	3
BSLS 3900	Human Resource Information Systems & Data Analysis	3
BSLS 4970	Human Resources Capstone	3
Total Credit Hours		36

- * Students pursuing the B.A. in Human Resources will be advised to take BSLS 3250 – Business Statistics, BSLS 2250 – Business Communications, and BSLS 3310 – Writing in the Workplace, which also fulfill the SoPA Core Curriculum Requirements for Quantitative Reasoning, Oral Communication, and Writing Intensive/Designated Writing courses, respectively.

Tulane SoPA Business & Leadership Studies courses cannot be applied towards majors in the AB Freeman School of Business, Newcomb-Tulane College, School of Liberal Arts, School of Science & Engineering, School of Architecture, or the School of Public Health.